

Bring Back The Magic!

Help get a new Disney station on television! Join the fight to bring back the REAL Disney Channel that shows Walt Disney's vision of what a Disney network should be.*

The Disney Channel

"People do not care like they used to. More and more are forgetting where they came from, and how we got here, and what matters most in life. The original Disney Channel used to encompass these very qualities; the 'Disney' qualities, if you will. The very qualities that Walt himself believed in, and fought so feverishly for most of his life to uphold. And -- poof! -- just like that, it is all long gone. There is never anything wrong with fighting for all that is good in this life; all that is decent and pure"

* Note that we are not trying to alter the current Disney Channel. We would like to see a channel more like the original Disney Channel, which reflected Walt Disney's vision of true family entertainment.
